THIS WEEK: “Undeniable Power, Undeniable Words” Acts 3:1-26
In Acts, the Bible captures the story of how a crucified Jesus challenged a hostile and disinterested culture with a message of hope, grace and love that continues to transform lives today. The Book of Acts. Jesus still matters. Jesus still transforms. Jesus still challenges culture. Jesus still saves.

1. Looking back at your notes from this week’s teaching, what particularly caught your attention, encouraged, challenged or confused you?
2. What makes the above response important to you?
3. What helped you see more of Jesus and his cross, or moved you to love him more?

DIGGING DEEPER

In this week's text we see that Peter and John, surely still riding the spiritual cloud of Pentecost, came face-to-face with sickness and pain — darkness hiding in the light.

4. What do you think Peter and John were thinking and feeling when they encountered the beggar at the temple gate?
5. When have you been surprised or challenged by an opportunity to help someone? What happened?

TAKING IT HOME

The light of Jesus overpowers the darkness of any situation. God provides, for his glory, spontaneous opportunities for serving others and proclaiming his name. He will grant us the power to respond to those opportunities. As in previous weeks, we seek to be ready when God acts.

6. What obstacles do you face in living a life that is ready to respond to God-given opportunities?
7. How can this week's message address those obstacles?
8. Taking all that you have considered this week, what is the one important thing for you to remember and put into action?
