1 Peter 3:8 encourages us to "be tenderhearted, and keep a humble attitude" (NLT).

And 1 Peter 4:10 says, "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others."

The more we understand each other's God-given gifts, the easier it is to love each other well with the kind of love we all need most—the deep and abiding love shown to us in Christ. That's true with the people we know and are close to now, and that's true of the people we meet and encounter in our everyday lives. All of them are people we can and want to reflect the love of Christ to in even better ways.

Answers: seen, God-given, predictable, strong, weak, improved.
